P. KEVIN CASTEL, District Judge:

In my Memorandum and Order dated February 8, 2011, the fourth sentence in the first full paragraph on page six states: "The deposition testimony cited in the Donnelly Declaration is ambiguous on the subject of whether GMA actually 'sold' Charlotte-marked goods." This sentence contains a typographical error, and is amended to read as follows: The deposition testimony cited in the Donnelly Declaration is ambiguous on the subject of whether Electric Wonderland actually "sold" Charlotte-marked goods.

SO ORDERED.
